For free vs. free of charges

I don't think there's any difference in meaning, although "free of charges" is much less common than "free of charge". Regarding your second question about context: given that English

grammaticality

A friend claims that the phrase for free is incorrect. Should we only say at no cost instead?

single word requests

Similarly, "free education" is funded by the state (which is ultimately financed by taxpayers) and taught in state-run schools called state schools whereas schools that charge tuition

"Free of" vs. "Free from"

If so, my analysis amounts to a rule in search of actual usage-a prescription rather than a description. In any event, the impressive rise of "free of" against "free from" over the past 100 years
