Free consultation on fixed type of photovoltaic integrated energy storage

For free vs. free of charges

I don't think there's any difference in meaning, although "free of charges" is much less common than "free of charge". Regarding your second question about context: given that English

Why does "free" have 2 meanings? \(Gratis and Libre\)

In the context such as "free press", it means libre from censorship, "gluten-free" means libre from gluten and so on. Then there is "free stuff", why is the same word used?

"Free of" vs. "Free from"

If so, my analysis amounts to a rule in search of actual usage—a prescription rather than a description. In any event, the impressive rise of "free of" against "free from" over the past 100 years
