Free rooftop photovoltaic panel installation orthography

My company gives out free promotional items with the company name on it. Is this stuff called company swag or schwag? It seems that both come up as common usages-Google searching indicates that the

Improved Port Area Calculator

I'm sure most people here have come across the "12-16 sq in of port area per cube" guideline for slot ports and the "9-12 sq in per cube" for aeros. The problem with both of these is they

What is it called when you "buy" something for free?

For example, imagine some food company decides to make their fruits permanently free. Online, you can "order" them (for free), but in person, what do you do? What would be the

Car Audio Sound Deadening

Holy information dump, Batman!! Well done, I love the preface you wrote to this thread- it gives people the map to the information contained within, and to provide a baseline of understanding

Sound Deadening Front Wheel Wells

Blocking road noise requires a different strategy than keeping panels from vibrating. Unless you

"Free of" vs. "Free from"

If so, my analysis amounts to a rule in search of actual usage—a prescription rather than a description. In any event, the impressive rise of "free of" against "free from" over the past 100 years

Complete installation costs

Very tight budget around $1,000 or less.
Moderate budget $2-3k, high performance per dollar build. My bad missed the part about the shop. Mabe $3-5k for a budget set up with a decent

Why does "free" have 2 meanings? \(Gratis and Libre\)

In the context such as "free press", it means libre from censorship, "gluten-free" means libre from gluten and so on. Then there is "free stuff", why is the same word used?

For free vs. free of charges

I don't think there's any difference in meaning, although "free of charges" is much less common than "free of charge". Regarding your second question about context: given that English

I stepped away back in 05-06 time frame from competing and pretty much DLS was the hot company to run in your car. Starting looking again late 09, early 2010 and they have kinda dropped
