For free vs. free of charges

I don't think there's any difference in meaning, although "free of charges" is much less common than "free of charge". Regarding your second question about context: given that English

Why does "free" have 2 meanings? \(Gratis and Libre\)

In the context such as "free press", it means libre from censorship, "gluten-free" means libre from gluten and so on. Then there is "free stuff", why is the same word used?

orthography

My company gives out free promotional items with the company name on it. Is this stuff called company swag or schwag? It seems that both come up as common usages-Google searching indicates that the

"Free of" vs. "Free from"

If so, my analysis amounts to a rule in search of actual usage-a prescription rather than a description. In any event, the impressive rise of "free of" against "free from" over the past 100 years

grammaticality

A friend claims that the phrase for free is incorrect. Should we only say at no cost instead?

What is the difference between 'Is it free' and 'Is it on the house?'

8 "Free" and "on the house" both mean that you don't have to pay, but the inferred meaning is slightly different. If something is "free" it is without charge. For example, you might
